FIFTH SUNDAY of EASTER

29th April 2018

FAITH IN FOCUS: Branching Out There's a lot of work to do in today's world. Almost daily, the TV and Radio brings terrible news of atrocities and disasters around the planet. It's easy to feel overwhelmed by all the bad news and to feel powerless to do anything. We do not consider that we can individually instigate change for lots of reasons. We do not feel clever enough, or brave enough or rich enough. In short, it's hard to know where to begin and even whether change is possible. The inspirational message in today's gospel is that we can make changes as long as we work together.

We are already familiar with the ethos of trade unions. Trade unions operate on one powerful principle. Individually we can be easily overlooked but together we have the power to bring the whole country to a stand-still and sway governments. If a trade union wanted to promote solidarity and unity, the vine would make an ideal logo. The vine itself is the heart of the union, the part that determines the ethos. The branches do the work of the vine and the fruit they bear is the outcome .... the final result.

Today we are told that with Christ as our vine we can do great things. All too often we become wrapped up in developing our own spirituality, trying to work out what God means to us as an individual ..... striving to find our niche. It's easy to forget that we are part of a huge family of people the biggest union on the planet. With Christ's teaching and pruning, we as a body, have the ability to transform the world by putting faith into action. Our individual responsibility is to look for ways in which we can become part of the overall plan. We don't have to branch out alone, we branch out as a team. Chapel Bell

STEPHEN CLARKE RIP ✕ Stephen, who died suddenly in Easter Week, was a familiar, lone figure at Mass every Sunday at St Peter's. He was last at Mass on Easter Sunday. It would be nice if as many parishioners as possible could attend Stephen's Requiem this Monday afternoon ✕.

MAY: MARY'S MONTH At both of our churches we will have a short ceremony next Sunday, 6th May, at which we will crown Our Lady's statue. This will be at the beginning, just before Mass begins. We hope to involve the children at both churches: at St Peter's it would be lovely if all the children, the First Communicants, those who attend children's liturgy and any child that wishes to take part, could bring with them a small posy of flowers picked by them from their garden. The children would gather in the parish hall at the beginning of Mass; perhaps the rest of the congregation could line both sides of the path between the hall and the church. We'll sing our opening hymn and the children will process from the hall to church with their flowers. Parishioners could then follow the children into church where the children will gather around the statue of Our Lady where one of them will crown it with flowers, and the children will place their posies in vases left ready around the statue. Thank you.

ASCENSION In 2017, the Bishops' Conference of England and Wales, with the approval of the Holy See on 4th August 2017, decreed that, with effect from the First Sunday of Advent 2017: (1) the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord is to be observed on the date prescribed in the Roman Calendar [6th January], except when it falls on a Saturday or a Monday, when the Solemnity is to be observed and the precept [the obligation to attend Mass] discharged in England and Wales on the Sunday; (2) The Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord is to be on the Thursday of the 6th Week of Easter Time. So it is that the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord will be on Thursday 10th May rather than on the Sunday as in recent years.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNIONS The children are now preparing for their First Eucharist on Sunday 20th
